

ARTWEI PROJECT
NATURE CONSERVATION AND TOURISM
DEVELOPMENT
ON THE AREA OF SZCZECIN LAGOON WORKSHOP

Szczecin, May 2012

K. Rabski (EUCC - Society For The Coast),
D. Zawadzki (University of Szczecin)

Part-financed by the European Union
(European Regional Development Fund)

ARTWEI

Workshop aims:

- Nature values of Szczecin Lagoon and the form of nature protection in the aspects of possible tourism development;
- New forms of tourism: a proposition regarding to the nature sources;
- Concept of Szczecin Lagoon delimitation for selected form of tourism needs.

Part-financed by the European Union
(European Regional Development Fund)

Participants:

- Partners and ARTWEI Project stakeholders,
- Interested representatives of tourism branch,
- Specialists and animators of nature conservation and sustainable development.

Proposed programme (preliminary):

Proposed programme will be completed during whole-day boat trip on the Szczecin Lagoon waters, which will be crucially important and helpful in nature values analysis in the light of potential alternative and new forms of tourism both on the water and the coastal zone.

Time of the Workshop: one day during May 2012.

Planned route:

Szczecin – Trzebież – Nowe Warpno – Ueckermunde – Szczecin Lagoon waters – Chełminek Island – Stepnica – Szczecin

ARTWEI

Planned presentations:

- Szczecin Lagoon coast and water nature values.
- Actual environmental threats of the Szczecin Lagoon area.
- Szczecin Lagoon waters quality.
- Zebra Mussel – proposition for water quality improvements.
- Form of nature conservation on the Szczecin Lagoon area.
- Location of the tourism in Szczecin Lagoon nature management plans, as a NATURA 2000 site.
- Forms of tourism on the waters and coasts of Szczecin Lagoon.
- Herbs recognizing - as alternatives form of active tourism.
- Development of sailing based on small harbours,
- Presentations about tourism, nature and sustainable development on Szczecin Lagoon – planned by German participants.

Part-financed by the European Union
(European Regional Development Fund)

Questions, ideas, suggestions...

please

Part-financed by the European Union
(European Regional Development Fund)

